Dear Families,

Hooray! It's teacher convention week! We'll have just three days of school and a nice, long weekend for the kids. Teachers will attend the convention, work at school, or take advantage of other opportunities. I'll be thinking of all of you!

Flu Shots!

I broke down and got a flu shot this year, and it didn't hurt a bit. Even Amanda got one! Think about it!

Red Riding Hood

We read lots of versions of the classic story last week. It's a good time to have a little chat about safety and talking to strangers. Thanks for the muffins, too!

The Frog Prince

We're going to work fast this week and read several versions of the Frog Prince. Our social skill is assertion- That frog just keeps trying until he gets his needs met. It's also an example of a fairy tale where magic is an element. You'd think most fairy tales would have fairies or magic, but we have discovered together that many do not! We've got some pretty sophisticated story analysis going on. Stop in and see our comparison chart!

Kindergarten Pizza Dinner

It's almost here! Eat delicious pizza, dance the robot dance, and meet all of the Barton Kindergarten families. It's a great way to celebrate the big achievement of settling into kindergarten. Our class brings salads! See you there tomorrow (Tuesday 10-14, 5:30)

Spelling

We had a great spelling test on Friday! Jack carried home the tests in a sealed envelope and will bring them back to school on Monday. Look for yours with your Monday Newsletter. No Homework this week! Enjoy!
