Dear Families,

What a fun Hansel and Gretel party we had! Thanks to the parents who were there to help. We had Bingo in our room, gingerbread houses in Dawn, and magic wand making in Rebekah's. The kids did a great job of going from room to room, and everyone had a nice time.

This Week:

We'll read Rumpelstiltskin this week, finish up our fairy tale number books, and write our own "once upon a time" stories. Whew! That's a lot! We'll read our stories and display our other books at our Author's Tea on Friday, November 7, from 7:45-8:45. Can't wait to see you all there!

Picture Retakes

As you read in the Bugle, If you want picture retakes, bring your pictures back to school and there will be a do-over. Our time is 8:15. Hope you read the online version of this newsletter to get a reminder!

Birthdays at School

November is a big birthday month for our class so I thought I'd tell about what we do. The birthday child gets to pick the morning meeting game. During the day we sing a bunch of birthday songs. Sometimes families send a special birthday treat, which we usually eat at snacktime. If you plan a home party and invite classmates, please be discreet. Mailed, phone, or emailed invitations are best- "backpack mail" is notoriously inefficient.

Lantern Walk

We are meeting at the southwest corner of Lyndale Farmstead Park at 5:00 on November 15. We'll bring the lanterns!
